"THE GREATEST OF THESE IS LOVE"

This year in his film series, theologian, film scholar, and Associate Pastor of St. Monica's Parish, Fr. Lloyd Baugh, S.J., proudly presents the ten short films of Krzysztof Kieslowski's Decalogue. Loosely inspired by the Mosaic "Ten Commandments", the films are rigorously consistent in their sharp focus on the pre-eminence of the commandment to love in the New Testament. "The entire law is fulfilled in this: 'Love your neighbor as yourself.'"

A Short Film About Killing

This original and longer version of Decalogue Five juxtaposes two senseless deaths: a brutal murder and a legal, but equally brutal, execution. The first half of the film recounts a few hours of three inhabitants of Warsaw: a young, principled lawyer, who faces tough questions during his bar-exam; a sullen, angry young man who wanders aimlessly about the city creating havoc; a surly taxi driver, who becomes his random victim in a terrible murder. In the second part of the film, the lawyer visits the young criminal, his client, in his prison cell on the day of his execution. The scene is altogether grim, but in the deeply personal conversation between the two men, we perceive, quite literally, a mysterious glimmer of hope.
