New director appointed to lead diocesan finances, serving the Church in Montreal

Montreal, Nov. 16, 2026 – The Archdiocese of Montreal is pleased to announce the appointment of Ms. Nathalie Madiba, CPA, as director of the diocesan Finance Department.

A chartered professional accountant, Ms. Madiba brings more than 15 years of experience in financial management, accounting and administration. Throughout her career, she has held several senior financial management positions in non-profit organizations, private companies and the transportation sector.

She joins the Archdiocese from the Fabrique de la paroisse Notre-Dame de Montréal, where she served as director of finance from November 2023. Her work there included improving financial processes, optimizing cash flow management and strengthening budgeting and accounting practices.

Her professional background also includes positions as controller, chief accountant and financial management adviser with various organizations, including Oxfam-Québec and the Réseau de transport de Longueuil (Longueuil's public transit network).

Recognized for her rigour, leadership and ability to improve management practices, Ms. Madiba combines extensive financial expertise with first-hand knowledge of diocesan and parish life in Montreal.

In her new role, she will contribute to the sound management of the Archdiocese's financial resources, working closely with various diocesan bodies to support the pastoral mission of the Church in Montreal.

The Archdiocese of Montreal warmly welcomes Ms. Madiba to her new position and wishes her every success as she takes on these responsibilities.
