Two diocesan events at the Feast of Christ the King

Montreal, November 17, 2020 – On Saturday, November 21, at 7:30 p.m. at Mary Queen of the World Cathedral, Archbishop Christian Lépine will preside at a Eucharistic celebration at the Feast of Christ the King.

The doors of the Cathedral will remain open to welcome participants at this celebration until the maximum number of 25 persons has been reached. The live-streamed Mass may also be followed on YouTube du Diocèse de Montréal.

As part of the same celebration, the Youth Ministry invites you to an evening of adoration, music, prayer and witness this Friday, November 20, at 8:00 p.m., led by members of the MJYM youth network.

The Prayer Vigil marking the Feast of Christ the King will close the liturgical year in celebration and thanksgiving. To participate in this virtual evening, click on this link: <https://bit.ly/3pEZwjJ>

On the Feast of Christ the King, we celebrate our King who rules not in the manner of princes of this world, but who humbles Himself and gives His life for all, so that we may experience His Glory by His side. It is the reign of love, the only reign in which all humankind know happiness! This is what we desire, and this is what we are building with Jesus.
